Synopsis: An 11th Century Godfather with a dash of The Tudors and a little Braveheart thrown in, the story of William the Conqueror is a historical epic like no other. An intricate, multi-faceted story of complex characters, their intense and conflicting relationships and, ultimately, their own individual destinies, it culminates in the events which took place on the battlefield of 1066 - arguably the most famous date in world history. A tapestry of political intrigue, betrayal and deception envelops the destinies of two great men, both vying for the British crown, one of whom will found a legendary dynasty that formed the basis for modern western civilization. One is the charismatic William, the "bastard" Duke of Normandy, the other his English rival, the popular Prince Harold. Caught up alongside them in this web of history are two powerful women, each of whom played a key role in their fates. Duchess Matilda of Flanders, the tempestuous wife William battled a country to win, and the gentle but determined Princess Edith, Harold's mistress, renowned as the most beautiful woman in the world. The story weaves together the actions and interactions of these four people-and those who would manipulate, help or hinder them-figures like Edward the Confessor, Harold's power-crazed brother Tostig and William's faithful friend and ally Fitz-creating a chain of rising action that culminates in the Battle of Hastings. A battle which decided the course of history both for Britain and the entire western world.

Synopsis: AFRICA UNITED tells the extraordinary story of three Rwandan children and their bid to achieve their lifelong dream - to take part in the opening ceremony of the 2010 Football World Cup in Johannesburg. On the way to the vital selection trial, disaster strikes when Fabrice, Dudu and Beatrice board the wrong bus and cross into the Congo; without papers, money or a believable story, they are escorted to a UNICEF refugee camp. But with considerable ingenuity and sass (and a World Cup wall chart for a map), our pint-sized heroes escape the camp and set off through the endless horizons of Africa in pursuit of their dream, picking up along the way a "dream team" of displaced kids, who help them negotiate a series of glorious, dangerous and hilarious adventures. Through their 3000 mile journey, we encounter an Africa few people have ever seen; experience an epic adventure through seven countries; and feel the joy, laughter and hope that comes from making an incredible journey together. AFRICA UNITED is a dramatic, heartfelt and enchanting story set to enthrall audiences worldwide.

Age Of Heroes

Cast: Sean Bean, Danny Dyer, Izabella Mika, James D'Arcy, Aksel Hennie, Rosie Fellner, Guy Burnet, Stephen Walters
Genre: Action/Adventure
Director: Adrian Vitoria
Producer: Lex Lutzus, Nick O'Hagan
Status: Post-Production

Synopsis:

The Dirty Dozen' meets 'Tigerland' in AGE OF HEROES - an action-packed adrenalin shot based on the true story of the formation of James Bond creator Ian Fleming's 30 Commando, one of the most respected, secretive and exclusive special forces regiments formed during the Second World War, from which the now legendary SAS was born. Ambushed deep behind enemy lines in WW2, the young British corporal Rains (DANNY DYER) fearlessly leads his men out of danger. But his rogue attitude costs him, and he's sent to an allied military prison for insubordination. When the highly esteemed Captain Jones (SEAN BEAN) shows up, Rains's bravado and raw display of fighting skills impress Jones enough to recruit him for his 'Commando' unit. After weeks of mentally intense and physically grueling training ops where Jones tests his men to their breaking point, they are quickly assigned their first mission; to parachute into occupied Norway and capture a deadly new radar technology from the Germans. But as they get near the drop-zone, the newly formed band of brothers, joined by 'Norwegian yank' Steiner and beautiful blonde spy Jensen, find themselves in the midst of a fierce dogfight, before crash landing in a Norwegian village where Nazis have been mercilessly executing civilians. In a bloody battle in the mountains of Norway, outnumbered by an enemy as ruthless as it is clinical, the soldiers soon realize it's do-or-die time. And by pushing their innate skills and hardcore training to the nth degree, we see that this is no time for ordinary soldiers! This is the AGE OF HEROES.

Albert Nobbs

Cast: Glenn Close, Amanda Seyfried, Orlando Bloom, Jonathan Rhys-Meyers, Michael Gambon, Janet McTeer
Genre: Drama
Director: Rodrigo Garcia
Writer: John Banville, Gabriela Prekop, Glenn Close
Producer: Julie Lynn, Bonnie Curtis, Glenn Close
Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis:

19th century Ireland: a woman with no husband or family and without work would face a bleak life of poverty and loneliness. Albert, a shy butler who keeps himself to himself, has been hiding a deep secret for years - 'he' is a woman who has had to dress and behave as a man all her life in order to escape this fate. When handsome painter Hubert Page arrives at the hotel, Albert is inspired to try and escape the false life she has created for herself. She gathers her nerves to court beautiful, saucy young maid Helen in whom she thinks she's found a soul-mate - but Helen's eye is on a new arrival: handsome, bad-boy Joe, the new handy-man! As Albert dares to hope that she might one day live a normal life, we catch a glimpse of a free-spirited woman who is caught in the wrong time... This humorous but ultimately poignant ensemble story about life 'below-stairs' is nothing less than Gosford Park meets Boys Don't Cry.

American - The Bill Hicks Story

Cast: Bill Hicks
Genre: Documentary
Director: Matt Harlock, Paul Thomas
Producer: Matt Harlock, Paul Thomas
Status: Completed

Synopsis:

Three years in the making, AMERICAN: THE BILL HICKS STORY brings the tale of one of modern culture's most iconic heroes to the big screen. Much more than a comedian, Bill Hicks was and still is an inspiration to millions. His timeless comedy tackled the contradictions of America and modern life head on. But his unique gift was to tease apart the essence of religion, the dangers of unbridled government power and the double standards inherent in much of modern society, using nothing but his hilarious ideas and the uncompromising observational style that continues to resonate with successive generations. Like many who have a strong sense of their place in history, Hicks left a large unseen legacy; his collection of video recordings and hundreds of photographs and these became the starting point for this feature-length animated documentary.

Genre: Action/Adventure
Writer/Director: Neil Marshall
Producer: Christian Colson
Status: Completed
Synopsis: AD 117. The Roman Empire stretches from Egypt to Spain, and East as far as the Black Sea. But in northern Britain, the relentless onslaught of conquest has ground to a halt in face of the guerrilla tactics of an elusive enemy: the savage and terrifying tribesmen known as the Picts. Marcus Dias, sole survivor of a Pictish raid on a Roman frontier fort, marches north with General Titus Virilus' legendary 9th legion, under orders to wipe the Picts from the face of the earth and destroy their leader Gorlacon. But when the legion is ambushed on unfamiliar ground, and Virilus taken captive, Marcus faces a desperate struggle to keep his small platoon alive behind enemy lines, evading remorseless Pict pursuers over harsh terrain, as the band of soldiers race to rescue their General, and to reach the safety of the Roman frontier. From writer/director, Neil Marshall, CENTURION is a gripping survival thriller set against a background of conquest and invasion; a pursuit movie in the vein of DELIVERANCE, LAST OF THE MOHICANS and APOCALYPTO.

The Disappearance Of Alice Creed

Cast: Gemma Arterton, Eddie Marsan, Martin Compston

Genre: Thriller

Writer/Director: J Blakeson

Producer: Adrian Sturges, Marc Samuelson

Status: Completed

Synopsis: On a quiet suburban street, two men seize a young woman. She is thrown into a van, her arms and legs cuffed, and she's taken to an abandoned and soundproof apartment. This is Alice Creed, daughter of a millionaire. Her kidnapers, the coldly efficient Vic and his younger accomplice Danny, have a meticulous plan with no room for error. But Alice is not going to play the perfect victim: she's not going to give in without a fight. And the stress of the kidnap is getting to Danny, who seems obsessed with Alice. As the kidnap plan plays out, there are double-crosses, glitches and surprises. And we discover that Vic, Danny and Alice are not quite as they seem. Each has a plan, a secret and an agenda. And as the plan heads towards its climax Vic, Danny and Alice are caught up in a tense power-play of greed, deception and survival.

Genre: Horror
Director: Bill Eagles
Writer: Eitan Arussi, Martin Friend
Producer: Arvind Ethan, David Cavan Ash, Lullilo Ruiz
Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: Just arrived in sultry Puerto Rico, straight-arrow medical researcher CLAIRE (Lauren Cohan) is excited to see her fiancé JACK (Shaun Sipos) after a six-month separation. But Jack has changed - his eyes have been opened and his cozy assumptions challenged by his time in the field working with the poor of Puerto Rico, and by fiery local beauty YARA (Moran Atias) and her fiercely jealous lover HECTOR (Jon Seda). Jack's not sure he wants what Claire wants anymore. Having their 'uber-successful' and sexed up friends, SAM (Arielle Kebbel) and VINCE (Tad Hilgenbrinck), along for the trip doesn't give them much space to work out their problems. But the lovers' distress is magnified a thousand fold when they find themselves abandoned on a deserted island by the suspicious Hector - and confront a horror born of vivisection, human experimentation and madness.

Genre: Horror
Director: Oliver Parker
Writer: Toby Finlay
Producer: Barnaby Thompson
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Based on the Oscar Wilde classic "The Portrait of Dorian Gray", this gothic, visceral thriller tells the faustian tale of a strikingly beautiful but naive young man who on arrival in London is swept into a social whirlwind by charismatic Lord Henry Wotton. While having his portrait painted he finds himself pledging his soul to stay looking as he does now. As he embarks on a life of hedonism and pleasure, the consequences begin to manifest themselves in the painting, now increasingly hideous and hidden in his attic, whilst his face remains perfect and unblemished. As those around him age, surely it is only a matter of time before his tarnished soul and myriad sins are laid to bare...

Firm

Cast: Calum MacNab, Joe Jackson, Paul Anderson
Genre: Drama
Writer/Director: Nick Love
Producer: Alan Niblo, James Richardson
Status: Completed
Synopsis: Loosely adapted from Alan Clarke's 1989 classic TV film, Nick Love's film is set earlier in the 80's and retells a similar story to the original -but from a different character's point of view. The film centres on Dom, a young wannabe football casual, who gets drawn into the charismatic but dangerous world of the firm's top boy, Bex. Accepted for his fast mouth and sense of humour, Dom soon becomes one the boys. But as Bex and his ICF gang clash with rival firms across the country and the violence spirals out of control, Dom realises he wants out -until he learns it's not that easy to simply walk away. Humorous, heart-warming and set to a killer jazz funk '80s soundtrack, THE FIRM is a classic coming of age story set amongst one of England's most revered tribes.

Synopsis: Zoey (Toni Collette) and Alec Morrison (Ioan Gruffudd) are a married couple who have been unable to heal the wounds caused by the death of their 5 year old son several years ago. Now unable to conceive, the Morrisons await confirmation of a child to foster. One day, a 7 year old boy who calls himself 'ELI' appears on their doorstep quite mysteriously, explaining the foster agency has sent him. The boy is old beyond his years and it becomes apparent that he is the listening ear amongst the couple's marriage breakdown. The boy offers moral support and idealistic suggestions to his foster parents on how to repair and re-kindle their love for each other. Adored by his foster Mother and admired by his foster Father, the couple begin to rebuild their foundations at home, at work and emotionally until they find the love they once had for each other. Miraculously, Zoey discovers she has conceived - a baby is on the way. Simultaneously, Eli mysteriously disappears... leaving only a letter on his bed.

Synopsis: After a 14 year hiatus, cult writer/director Philip Ridley is back with a vengeance with the visually stunning horror/thriller HEARTLESS - a fiercely shocking and intelligent spine-chiller that reinvents the horror genre. Jim Sturgess delivers a career defining performance in this twisted story which is equal parts psychological thriller, desperate romance and terrifying Faustian horror! The decaying city is plagued with violence and brutal murders, and the introverted Jamie (JIM STURGESS), ostracized because of the heart-shaped birthmark across half his face, lives alone, hiding himself away from the horrors around him. When he witnesses his mother's bloody murder by a gang of demonic street thugs, Jamie becomes hell-bent on vigilante justice. And it is this quest for bitter vengeance that leads him to Papa B, the embodiment of Satan - who lures Jamie into accepting a Faustian deal in exchange for minor acts of chaos, which may never be called in! Jamie soon finds himself with an unblemished face, and the attention of the beautiful Tia (CLEMENCE POESY) who never noticed him before. As their romance grows, Jamie becomes confident, happy even, and his whole life starts to turn around, until Papa B sends the 'Weapons Man' (EDDIE MARSAN) to deliver instructions of what Jamie is obliged to do in return! These 'minor acts of chaos' are in fact brutal murders, and in order to protect the ones he loves, Jamie has no choice but to follow through! VANILLA SKY, THE OMEN, JACOB'S LADDER, and THE CELL come crashing together in HEARTLESS, a horrifying story of violence, love, temptation and redemption. Be careful what you wish for!

Synopsis: On the windswept Suffolk mudflats creaks a bird-hide, inside which hovers Roy Tunt, a prematurely aged, mildly obsessive-compulsive birder. With one more sighting - the elusive sociable plover - he will have 'twitched' the entire British List. Tunt has his shortwave radio, packed-lunch and a portrait of his ex-wife Sandra for company. Suddenly, in the midst of a conversation with Sandra's portrait, the hide door blows open and a bedraggled stranger - unshaven, edgy and bloodied introduces himself as Dave John, a fugitive from the storm. After a tense introduction, the two men discover that they have a good deal in common, sharing sandwiches, tea and personal exchanges which are frank, poignant and often funny. As the two men begin to form a close bond news of a police manhunt sets them both on edge driving their fragile relationship to a tragic conclusion.

Synopsis: Sixteen years younger than Tolstoy, Sofya bore him 13 children. She also acted as a loyal secretary and is determined to preserve his enormous wealth for herself and her children's future. Torn between his professed doctrine of poverty and his wealth, Tolstoy searches for purpose in his life. Valentin, an idealistic young student, leaves Moscow to work for Sofya and Tolstoy. When he arrives, Valentin meets Masha, a beautiful young teacher and suddenly his vow of celibacy is forgotten! Sofya and Tolstoy are increasingly at odds. Chertkov (Tolstoy's devoted disciple) urges Tolstoy to sign a new will and leave his estate 'to the people' while Sofya battles his every move. Valentin tries not to take sides but inevitably gets caught up in the struggle. Outraged at Valentin's apparent lack of cooperation, Chertkov spitefully fires Masha. Distraught, Valentin follows to search for her and finally finds her living in a very humble lodging Hse.. Falling happily into her arms, they swear never to leave each other again. Tolstoy, in his final days, makes a run for peace. Too ill to continue beyond the tiny railway station at Astapovo, he stops while hundreds camp outside awaiting hourly reports. Tolstoy often claimed that marriage was the best thing that ever happened to him. After his death death, Sofya remarked, "I lived with him for forty-eight years, but I never really learned what kind of man he was."

Synopsis: The inspirational and feel-good story of Rita, a feisty factory worker who inadvertently challenged one of the biggest corporations in the world. In Spring 1968, what starts as a dispute over pay leads to an uprising amongst the women workers of the Ford motor plant in Britain. Rita is a typical '60s girl. The world around her is changing at hyper-speed. A young mother, all she wants is a good life for herself and for her family. Though it's not the perfect job, sewing car seat covers is all she's got and it takes skill to do it. When she learns that her male colleagues are paid more for lesser tasks, Rita can't sit back and do nothing. She empowers the women around her to demand what they deserve. To Ford, these women mean nothing. But they hadn't counted on Rita. She's a leader, she's a winner and she'll change history. Not just in Dagenham, but across the world.

Genre: Drama
Director: Julian Schnabel
Writer: Rula Jebreal
Producer: John Killik
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Jerusalem, 1948. On her way to work, Hind Hussein comes across 55 orphaned children in the street. She takes them home to give them food and shelter. Within six months, 55 had grown to almost 2000, and the Dar Al-Tifel Institute was born. At the age of 7, Miral was sent to the Institute by her father following her mother's death. Brought up safely inside the Institute's walls, she is naive to the troubles that surround her. Then, at the age of 17, she is assigned to teach at a refugee camp where she is awakened to the reality of her people's struggle. When she falls for political activist, Hani, she finds herself torn between the fight for the future of her people and Mama Hind's belief that education is the road to peace. From Julian Schnabel, director of THE DIVING BELL AND THE BUTTERFLY, BEFORE NIGHT FALLS and BASQUIAT, comes MIRAL, based on the book by Rula Jebreal and produced by Jon Kilik. MIRAL stars Hiam Abass and Freida Pinto.

Synopsis: MARTIN FREEMAN is Mr. Maddens, a frustrated, under-achieving, primary school teacher. His long time adversary, Gordon Shakespeare, (JASON WATKINS), is the teacher at the posh independent school up the road. Every year, the two schools are embroiled in a bitter rivalry to achieve a 5-star review for their Christmas nativity play. Maddens' class always comes runner up. The story of his life. This year, Maddens makes an idle boast to Shakespeare that his school's showstopping musical has attracted the attention of his ex-girlfriend, Jennifer Lore (ASHLEY JENSEN) -who happens to be a big time Hollywood Producer. They want to make a movie starring his kids... Hollywood is coming to Coventry! When over-enthusiastic new classroom assistant, Mr Poppy (MARC WOOTTON), overhears the lie, suddenly Maddens finds himself a local celebrity, and at the centre of qurelling parents, a wannabe show director, and more Mary and Josephs than he can shake a stick at! Now all he needs to do is persuade Jennifer to make Hollywood pay attention and make their dreams come true... NATIVITY is a sweet, heartwarming family comedy of how nothing can get in the way of the true spirit of Christmas.

Synopsis: "If you want a Ned, I'll give you a fucking Ned!" Glasgow, 1973. On the brink of adolescence, young John McGill's about to start secondary school. He's a bright boy, a sensitive boy, eager to learn, but the cards are stacked high against him. The McGill family's dirt poor, his hated father's a drunken bully. His teachers – punishing John for the 'sins' of his older brother Benny – are down on him from the start. John's on his own. And then there's the gangs. The Neds. Non-Educated Delinquents. The bad boys with weapons and attitude: cheap drugs, glam rock, fumbling sex, the violence and the camaraderie of the streets. Local monsters. Local heroes. Benny's fearsome reputation buys John protection, and then a way in. Scared, resentful, full of rage, John makes his decision. If no one else will give him a chance: fuck them. John takes to the savage life of the streets with a vengeance. But as his rage and frustration spin him further and further out of control, he is left facing a blank wall. No future. With one extraordinary chance of redemption.

Oil City Confidential

Cast: Dr Feelgood
Genre: Documentary
Director: Julien Temple
Producer: Stephen Malit
Status: Completed

Synopsis: The story of Dr Feelgood, four men in cheap suits who crashed out of Canvey Island in the early '70s, sandpapered the face of rock'n'roll, leaving all that came before a burnt-out ruin - four estuarine John-the-Baptists to Johnny Rotten's anti-Christ. Taking London by storm, they sped through Europe and conquered the UK with No 1 chart success, before imploding just as punk was born and America beckoned with open arms. Contributions from members of The Clash, Blondie and The Sex Pistols join Dr Feelgood with collaborators Jools Holland and Alison Moyet to tell the story of Canvey, '70s England and the greatest local band in the world.

Synopsis: When Mary and her teenage son, Fergal, move to yet another new home, it soon becomes clear that they live their lives on the run, hiding from someone or something, terrified of being found. Trying to avoid making new friends or connections wherever they go, Fergal finds himself caught between the affections of his beautiful and feisty neighbour and his fiercely protective mother who will stop at nothing to protect her precious son. Mary has strict rules which govern Fergal's life without which chaos and terror threaten to ensue. Their hunter is Cathal, a dangerous and terrifying man, intent on tracking down and killing Mary and Fergal. What's more, he is using a dark form of magic to find them. Mary's only defense is to use the same ancient form of magic in order to protect her son. But how long will it be before Cathal manages to outsmart her? When local residents begin to be brutally murdered by an unknown life force, the sense of fear escalates. Is Cathal the beast responsible for the killings? Or is it the beast that he is trying to destroy?

In the sequel to the hit Nazi Zombie action horror movie, OUTPOST, we return to the aftermath of the reanimated mayhem. Packing an even bigger punch, OUTPOST: BLACK SUN delivers more action and even more fights, as the un-dead legion breaks out in its ruthless quest for power. The year is 1945, the closing stages of WW2, and a German scientist by the name of Klausener is working on a frightening new technology; the power to create an immortal Nazi army. Flash forward to present day, and a NATO task force is hurriedly deployed to Eastern Europe, where a sinister enemy appears to be mercilessly killing everything in its path. but this is no ordinary foe... Only Helena, a gutsy investigator on the trail of notorious war-criminal Klausener, accept the reality of what they are facing; a battalion of Nazi Storm-Troopers, a veritable zombie army on the march. With the help of Wallace, a man who's been chasing Nazi secrets for years, the two of them team up with a Special Forces Unit to venture deep behind enemy lines. Their mission; to fight their way back to the source of this evil army and prevent the seemingly inevitable rise of the 4th Reich... '28 Weeks Later' meets 'Cloverfield' meets 'Aliens' in OUTPOST: BLACK SUN, and action horror movie that brings the most evil force of the 20th century screaming back to life.....again.

The People vs. George Lucas

Genre: Documentaty
 Director: Alexandre O Phillippe
 Producer: Kerry Deigan Roy, Robert Muratore), Vanessa Phillippe, Alexandre O Phillippe, Anna Higgs
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: We all love Star Wars...until George Lucas went and ruined it! The passion the original Star Wars trilogy inspires in its fans is unparalleled, but when it comes to George Lucas himself, many have found their ardour has cooled into a complicated love-hate relationship. This hilarious, heartfelt documentary delves deep into Lucas' cultural legacy asking all the tough questions: has Lucas betrayed his masterwork? Should he just have left the original trilogy alone? Is The Phantom Menace so bad it should carry a health warning? Using interviews taken from over 700 hours of footage and peppered with extraordinary Star Wars recreations lovingly immortalised in needlepoint, lego, claymation and puppets, above all this film asks the question: who truly owns that galaxy far, far away? The man who created it or the fans who love it?

Synopsis: Liverpool, August 1976. 5-year-old Fergus met Frankie on his first day at school. They've been in each others' shadow ever since. As teenagers they skipped school and drank cider on the ferry over the River Mersey, dreaming about travelling the world. In September 2004, Fergus (ex-SAS) persuaded Frankie (ex-Para) to join his security team in Baghdad. £12,000 a month, tax free. Their last chance to 'load up' in this increasingly privatised war. Together they risked their lives in a city steeped in violence, terror and greed, and awash with US dollars, by the billion. In March 2006, Frankie died on Route Irish, the most dangerous road in the city. Back in Liverpool, a grief-stricken Fergus rejects the official explanation, and begins his own investigation into his soulmate's. Only Rachel, Frankie's partner grasps the depth of his sorrow, and the lethal possibilities of his fury. Can Fergus find out what happened to Frankie on Route Irish? And can he find his old self again, and the happiness he shared with Frankie 20 years ago on the Mersey?

Synopsis: I have been waiting too long for the film of my life. My name is Oliver Tate. This film will capture my particular idiosyncrasies, for example, the way I seduce my classmate Jordana Bevan using only my mind. Also, since my parents' marriage is being threatened by a man who runs courses on Mental and Physical Wellbeing, the film will probably feature some elaborate set-pieces of me taking him down. There will be helicopter shots. There will be slow-mo, but also transcendent moments, like when I cure my father's depression. Knowing me as I do, I will be surprised if this film runs to less than three hours. Note to the press: appropriate adjectives to describe this film include "breath-taking" and "irresistible" as well the phrase: "a monumental achievement"•."

Synopsis: In Shakespeare's fantastical thriller the magician Prospero orchestrates spirits, monsters, a grief-stricken king, a wise old councillor, two treacherous brothers and a storm at sea into a fantastical conspiracy bringing banishment, sorcery and shipwreck into the lives of two hapless lovers to stir and seal their fate. Here Prospero takes female form as Prospera, giving her journey of vengeance and self-discovery a wholly new resonance. As Prospera breaks her magical staff against an entrancing volcanic landscape at the end of her heroic quest, this poignant story of love and forgiveness translates into a riveting and filmic mystical tale, for our own times.

Genre: Drama
Director: Paolo Sorrentino
Status: Production

Synopsis: Cheyenne, a wealthy former rock star (Penn), now bored and listless in his retirement embarks on a quest to find his father's persecutor, an ex-Nazi war criminal now hiding out in the U.S. Learning his father is close to death, he travels to New York in the hope of being reconciled with him during his final hours, only to arrive too late. Having been estranged for over 30 years, it is only in death that he learns the true extent of his father's humiliation in Auschwitz at the hands of former SS Officer Aloise Muller - an event he is determined to avenge. So begins a life-altering journey across the heartland of America to track down and confront his father's nemesis. As his quest unfolds, Cheyenne is reawakened by the people he encounters and his journey is transformed into one of reconciliation and self discovery. As his date with destiny arrives and he tracks down Muller, Cheyenne must finally decide if it is redemption he seeks ...or revenge. Starring two time Academy Award winner Sean Penn and marking the much-anticipated English-language debut of acclaimed director Paolo Sorrentino, THIS MUST BE THE PLACE is a gripping examination of a man on the precipice of obsession.

Genre: Horror
Director: James Watkins
Writer: Jane Goldman
Producer: Richard Jackson, Simon Oakes
Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: Young lawyer Arthur Kipps leaves his son in London to settle the legal affairs of the recently deceased Alice Drablow. He discovers a series of inexplicable accidents and suicides have forced the parents of her village to barricade their children indoors, as if protecting them from an unseen foe. When Arthur stays the night all alone at the Drablow's foreboding Hse., he hears the screams of a drowning child and sees decaying children listlessly wandering the marshes. He will soon discover these haunting figures share the same date of death, and the same killer. The ghost of a scorned woman, who was unable to save her beloved son Nathaniel from drowning, The Woman In Black takes on a horrifying form. Her veil hides gaping sockets eaten away by scavengers and her curse hides an even darker secret !whenever she is seen, a child dies. In the face of hostility from the local residents, Arthur dredges up Nathaniel's skeleton and buries it with his mother, hoping the evil spectre will finally rest in peace. In a cruel twist of fate the The Woman In Black turns her claws toward Arthur's young son. To avoid a fate worse than death Arthur must now sacrifice everything he holds dear.

The Woman In The Fifth

Cast: Ethan Hawke, Kristin Scott Thomas
Genre: Thriller
Director: Pawel Pawlikowski
Status: Production

Synopsis: American writer Harry Ricks arrives in Paris to be closer to his daughter, who recently moved there with her mother. Completely broke, he accepts a job as a night guard for the local Balkan mafia. Down in a basement, his only task is to push a button when a bell rings. The tranquillity of the night, he hopes, will help him focus on his new novel. Soon his days become more exciting than his nights when he starts a romance with Margit, a mysterious and elegant widow who sets strange rules to their meetings: she will only see him at her apartment in the fifth arrondissement, at 5pm sharp, twice a week. And he's to ask no questions about her work, her past, her life... As people suddenly start dying around Harry, he begins to believe that a dark force has entered his life, punishing anyone who has recently done him wrong. When the police accuse him of murdering his neighbour, Harry tries to use his weekly visits in Margrit's apartment as an alibi, only to find out she hasn't lived at this address for the past 15 years...
